How do I log in to i-law?

You can browse the resources on i-law, and access many of the site's features (for example conduct searches) without logging in. However, if you wish to access the full text of any resource, you will need to log in.

i-law will prompt you to log in when you attempt to access specific documents. Additionally, you are not able to access your folders, alerts or other personal information until you have logged in.

When prompted, enter your log in details where shown. Depending on the type of access you have, you may find your username and password entered for you. If not, enter them now along with your email address.

Alternatively, you can click "Log in" in the top right of your screen at the start of your session and follow the process described above.

If you are having trouble logging in, please contact your account manager or email mtprof.enquiries@informa.com or call +44 (0) 20 7017 5532

The screenshot shows the i-law.com login interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Home | Help | FAQs', a search bar with 'Advanced | Case' and 'All' dropdown, and a 'Go' button. On the right, there are links for 'Request A Free Trial | Log In' and 'Helpdesk: +44 (0) 20 7017 5532'. Below the navigation bar, there's a 'You are here: Home » Log In' breadcrumb. The main content area has a 'Log in' button and a form with fields for 'Username:', 'Password:', and 'Email address:'. A 'Remember my details on this computer:' checkbox is checked, and a 'Log in' button is next to it. A red line points from the 'Log in' button in the top right to the 'Remember my details on this computer:' checkbox.

HINT Checking the "Remember Me" box will make logging in faster in future.

The screenshot displays the i-law.com website interface. At the top, the i-law.com logo is on the left, and navigation links for 'My Subscriptions', 'My Search Alerts', 'My Publication Alerts', 'My Searches', 'My Research Trails', and 'My Folders' are in the center. A 'Log Out' link is on the right. Below the navigation bar is a search bar with a dropdown menu set to 'All' and a 'Go' button. A 'Helpdesk: +44 (0) 20 7017 5532' link is also present. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'Practice Areas' (Construction, Dispute Resolution, Financial Crime, Insurance & Reinsurance, Intellectual Property, Maritime & Commercial), 'Resources' (Publications, Forms & Documents, Legislation, Practice Notes, Legal Events), and 'About i-law' (Free Trial, Watch i-law Demo, Read Client Feedback, About). The 'Latest News and Reports' section features several articles with dates, such as 'Early warning call in Indonesia intensifies Insurance Day 28 Oct 2010' and 'A Black day for 'honest services' Fraud Intelligence 15 Oct 2010'. The 'Law Reports Search' section includes input fields for 'Free Text', 'Party Names', and 'Keywords', along with a 'Go' button. The 'Citation Search' section has dropdown menus for 'Series' and input fields for 'Year', 'Volume', and 'Page', with a 'Go' button. The 'NEW - Law & Regulation Channel' section features an image of a ship and text describing the new Lloyd's List Intelligence: Law & Regulation channel, which assists with investigations into vessel disappearance, resolving charter disputes, and tracking stolen marine assets. A bulleted list highlights features: 'Casualties' (access to archives dating back to 1990), 'Investigations' (discreet investigations to identify corporate structures and track assets), and 'Vessel Tracking' (real-time AIS positioning, ship and port information).

Accessing your information

Your information - subscriptions, alerts, recent searches, research trails and folders can all be accessed via the top toolbar once you have logged in.

Accessing the Practice Areas

You can access the contents of each of our six Practice Areas from the homepage.

Click on a Practice Area in the top left corner of the main window and you will see all the resources for that area displayed in front of you.

For example, clicking "Insurance & Reinsurance" will take you to the Insurance & Reinsurance on i-law homepage, shown here.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for "My Subscriptions", "My Search Alerts", "My Publication Alerts", "My Searches", "My Research Trails", and "My Folders", along with a "Log Out" button. Below this is a search bar with a dropdown menu set to "All" and a "Go" button. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains a "Practice Areas" menu with options: Construction, Dispute Resolution, Financial Crime, Insurance & Reinsurance, Intellectual Property, and Maritime & Commercial. Below this is a "Resources" section with options: Publications and Forms & Documents. The middle column is titled "Latest News and Reports" and features three news items: "Early warning call in Indonesia intensifies Insurance Day 28 Oct 2010", "London Arbitration 20/10 Lloyd's Maritime Law Newsletter 27 Oct 2010", and "Arbitration clauses - restrictions on selection of the tribunal - legal status of arbitrators Construction Industry Law Letter 26 Oct 2010". The right column contains two search boxes: "Law Reports Search" with fields for "Free Text:", "Party Names:", and "Keywords:", and "Citation Search" with a "Select Series" dropdown menu.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com page for "Insurance & Reinsurance". The navigation bar and search bar are identical to the homepage. The "You are here" breadcrumb trail reads "Home >> Insurance & Reinsurance". The left column contains an "Insurance Law Resources" menu with options: Publications, Legislation, Practice Notes, Directory of Organisations, and Legal Events. Below this is a "Practice Areas" menu with options: Construction, Dispute Resolution, Financial Crime, Insurance & Reinsurance, Intellectual Property, and Maritime & Commercial. The middle column is titled "Lloyd's Law Reports: Insurance & Reinsurance" and features three news items: "A C WARD & SON LTD v CATLIN (FIVE) LTD AND OTHERS (NO 2)", "JONES v ENVIRONCOM LTD AND ANOTHER MILES SMITH INSURANCE BROKERS (THIRD PARTY) (NO 2)", and "VIENNA INSURANCE GROUP v BILAS". The right column contains two search boxes: "Insurance Law Reports Search" with fields for "Free Text:", "Party Names:", and "Keywords:", and "Citation Search" with a "Series" dropdown menu, "Year:", "Volume:", and "Page:" fields.

Accessing Law Reports

You can access our range of Law Reports by conducting a Law Reports or Citation Search

... or by clicking on "Publications" on the left of the homepage.

A selection of recent Law Reports are also displayed on the homepage of each Practice Area for which they are available.

After clicking on a Law Report's title, you will be taken to its homepage.

Click on the year to view archived editions.

Click on any of the volumes listed for that year and you will be presented with the cases contained in that volume.

Click on the title of the case you wish to read to view it.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'My Subscriptions', 'My Search Alerts', 'My Publication Alerts', 'My Searches', 'My Research Trails', and 'My Folders', along with a 'Log Out' button. The left column contains 'Practice Areas' (Construction, Dispute Resolution, Financial Crime, Insurance & Reinsurance, Intellectual Property, Maritime & Commercial) and 'Resources' (Publications, Forms & Documents, Legislation). The middle column, titled 'Latest News and Reports', lists several articles with dates, such as 'Early warning call in Indonesia intensifies Insurance Day 28 Oct 2010' and 'London Arbitration 20/10 Lloyd's Maritime Law Newsletter 27 Oct 2010'. The right column contains search forms for 'Law Reports Search' (with fields for Free Text, Party Names, and Keywords) and 'Citation Search' (with dropdowns for Series, Year, and Volume, and a Page field).

This screenshot shows the 'Lloyd's Law Reports' archive page. It features a navigation bar similar to the homepage. Below the search bar, there is a breadcrumb trail: 'Home » Publications » Lloyd's Law Reports'. The main content area is titled 'Lloyd's Law Reports' and includes the author information: 'Author: Michael Daiches, Barrister, and Professor Robert Merkin'. A 'Browse Archive by Year' section displays a grid of years from 1919 to 2010. Below this, there is a 'Browse 2010 Archive by Volume' section with links for '1' and '2'. The bottom part of the page shows 'Reports for Volume 1, 2010', with the first entry being 'COMPANIA SUD AMERICANA DE VAPORES SA v SINOCHEM TIANJIN IMPORT AND EXPORT CORPORATION (THE "ACONCAGUA")'.

This screenshot shows the 'NEW - Law & Regulation Channel' section. It features a promotional image of a ship's mast with flags. Below the image, there is a text block describing the channel: 'The new Lloyd's List Intelligence: Law & Regulation channel will assist you when performing investigations into vessel disappearance, resolving charter disputes, arresting ships, tracing stolen marine assets, countering environmental disputes and even identifying new and additional client opportunities with:'. A bulleted list of services follows: 'Casualties - Be alerted to the latest casualties and access archives dating back to 1990', 'Investigations - Instruct our team of analysts to undertake discreet investigations, identify corporate structures and track assets', and 'Vessel Tracking - Accurately monitor world fleet movements incorporating real-time AIS positioning, ship and port information'.

How do I navigate with the “breadcrumb trail”?

i-law features a “breadcrumb trail” in the top left of your screen, underneath the main toolbar. These “breadcrumbs” instantly let you know where you are on the site, displaying, for example, the volume and the year of the resource you are viewing.

You can click on any element of the breadcrumb trail to be taken to that area, for example:

- Clicking “Home” in the breadcrumb trail will take you back to the i-law.com homepage.
- Clicking “Publications” will take you to the list of publications available on i-law
- Clicking on “Lloyd’s Law Reports” will take you to the homepage for this title
- Clicking on “2010” will take you back to a list of all the volumes available for that year
- Clicking “2” will take you back to the contents for that volume.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'My Subscriptions', 'My Search Alerts', 'My Publication Alerts', 'My Searches', 'My Research Trails', and 'My Folders', along with a 'Log Out' button. Below this is a search bar and a 'Go' button. A breadcrumb trail is visible: 'You are here: Home » Maritime & Commercial » Publications » Lloyd's Law Reports » 2010 » 2 » Document'. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column contains 'Related Content' with sections for 'Document Contents', 'Publication Details', 'Lloyd's Law Reports', and 'Case Cross-Reference'. The right column displays the title '[2010] Vol. 2 LLOYD'S LAW REPORTS 409' and the text of a legal case, 'COURT OF APPEAL' regarding 'ENE 1 KOS LTD v PETROLEO BRASILEIRO SA (THE "KOS")'. The text includes details about the vessel's charter, the court's decision, and the Supreme Court Act 1981, section 51.

Accessing other resources

From the homepage, click on the type of resource - publications, forms and documents, legislation etc. - that you wish to view in the left hand panel. You will then be taken to a list of what is available.

HINT Clicking "Publications" will display all Law Reports, Books, Journals, Looseleaves, Magazines and Newsletters.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'My Subscriptions', 'My Search Alerts', 'My Publication Alerts', 'My Searches', 'My Research Trails', and 'My Folders', along with a 'Log Out' button. Below this is a search bar with a dropdown menu set to 'All' and a 'Go' button. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains a 'Practice Areas' menu with options like 'Construction', 'Dispute Resolution', 'Financial Crime', 'Insurance & Reinsurance', 'Intellectual Property', 'Maritime & Commercial', and 'Resources'. The 'Resources' option is highlighted with a red dot. The middle column, titled 'Latest News and Reports', lists several articles with dates, such as 'Early warning call in Indonesia intensifies Insurance Day 28 Oct 2010'. The right column contains search boxes for 'Law Reports Search' and 'Citation Search'.

You can narrow the list of resources to cover a specific Practice Area, for example, Maritime and Commercial, by clicking on the Practice Area's name in the third column.

You can also sort the list of resources alphabetically by Publication, Format or Practice Area by clicking on the down arrow for ascending order or the up arrow for descending order.

The screenshot shows the 'List of Publications' page on i-law.com. The page has a similar layout to the homepage but is filtered to show publications. The left column still shows the 'Practice Areas' menu, with 'Resources' highlighted. The middle column, titled 'List of Publications', contains a table of resources. The table has three columns: 'Publication', 'Format', and 'Practice Areas'. The 'Publication' column is sorted in descending order, as indicated by a down arrow. The 'Format' column is also sorted in descending order. The 'Practice Areas' column is sorted in descending order. The table lists various publications, including 'A Guide to Reinsurance Law', 'A Practical Guide to International Arbitration in London', 'Admiralty Jurisdiction and Practice', 'Alternative Insurance Capital', 'Arbitration Act 1996', 'Arbitration Law', 'Arbitration Law Handbook', 'Arbitration Law Monthly', 'Arbitration Practice and Procedure', and 'Asia Arbitration Guide'. The right column shows the 'Practice Areas' for each publication, such as 'Insurance and Reinsurance', 'Dispute Resolution', 'Maritime and Commercial', and 'Insurance and Reinsurance'.

How do I search for information on i-law?

Four types of searches are available on i-law:

- quick searches
 - Law Report searches
 - case searches
 - advanced searches
- FIND OUT MORE
- FIND OUT MORE

Quick search

You can conduct a "quick search" from any page on i-law using the "Search" box in the main toolbar.

Simply enter a search term in the box. You can choose to narrow your search by a particular Practice Area using the drop down menu on the right.

HINT Enter quotation marks around two or more keywords in the Search box to search for that exact phrase. If you leave off the quotation marks, i-law will perform an "AND" search, seeking out both / all terms.

If you are already viewing a publication, there is an additional option in the drop down menu that allows you to narrow your search to within that publication only.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com homepage. At the top, there are navigation links: "My Subscriptions | My Search Alerts | My Publication Alerts | My Searches | My Research Trails | My Folders". Below this is a search bar with the text "Search: Advanced | Case" and a dropdown menu set to "All". A red circle highlights the search bar, and a red arrow points from the text "You can conduct a 'quick search' from any page on i-law using the 'Search' box in the main toolbar." to the search bar.

The screenshot shows a search result on i-law.com. The search bar contains "The Kos" and a dropdown menu is open, showing "This Publication" selected. A red circle highlights the search bar, and a red arrow points from the text "Simply enter a search term in the box. You can choose to narrow your search by a particular Practice Area using the drop down menu on the right." to the dropdown menu. The search results show "Lloyd's Law Reports" and "COURT OF APPEAL" with a summary of the case "ENE 1 KOS LTD v PETROLEO BRASILEIRO SA (THE 'KOS')".

Conducting Law Reports searches

You can conduct a "Law Report" search from the i-law homepage and the Maritime and Commercial and Insurance and Reinsurance Practice Area homepages.

Complete a general "Law Report" search by using free text, party names or keywords.

Citation searches are also available. Search by series, year, volume and page number.

Advanced Case Search

Conducting advanced case searches can help you find specific information quickly, narrowing your search to find specific cases. The available areas to search in are listed on screen, including parties, keywords, headnotes, judge's name and court.

Click on the "Case" button on the main toolbar and you will be taken to a new screen.

You can now conduct an advanced case search using field searches or operators. Click the "Browse" buttons to select the Law Report Series or Practice Area you want to search across from a list.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for "My Subscriptions", "My Search Alerts", "My Publication Alerts", "My Searches", "My Research Trails", and "My Folders", along with a "Log Out" button. Below this is a search bar with a "Search:" label, a dropdown menu set to "All", and a "Go" button. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains "Practice Areas" (Construction, Dispute Resolution, Financial Crime, Insurance & Reinsurance, Intellectual Property, Maritime & Commercial) and "Resources" (Publications, Forms & Documents, Legislation, Practice Notes, Legal Events). The middle column, titled "Latest News and Reports", lists several articles with dates, such as "Early warning call in Indonesia intensifies Insurance Day 28 Oct 2010". The right column, titled "Law Reports Search", contains search fields for "Free Text:", "Party Names:", and "Keywords:", each with a corresponding input box and a "Go" button. Below these is a "Citation Search" section with a "Series:" dropdown menu, and input fields for "Year:", "Volume:", and "Page:", each with a "Go" button.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com Case Search page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for "My Subscriptions", "My Search Alerts", "My Publication Alerts", "My Searches", "My Research Trails", and "My Folders", along with a "Log Out" button. Below this is a search bar with a "Search:" label, a dropdown menu set to "All", and a "Go" button. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column, titled "Case Search", contains a "Please note" section and several search fields: "Free Text:", "Parties:", "Keywords:", "Headnote:", and "Judge:", each with a corresponding input box and a "Browse" button. The right column, titled "Operators/Connectors", contains a "Phrase" section with a "Phrase" input box and a "Go" button, and a "Stemmed" section with a "Stemmed" input box and a "Go" button. Below these are sections for "NOT", "OR", and "NEARn", each with a "Go" button.

Conducting advanced searches

Advanced searches can help you find specific information quickly, narrowing your search to seek out specific cases, topics, rulings and more.

Click "Advanced" on the main toolbar and you will be taken to a new screen.

You can now conduct an advanced search using field searches and operators and sort your results by date or relevance.

Conducting Field Searches

Field searches allow you to search for terms in specific areas of a document. The available areas to search are listed on screen, including document title, publication title, format and Practice Area. Browse buttons are available for you to select the publication, format and Practice Area you need from a list.

To conduct a field search enter your search term in the relevant box. You can use quotations to perform a phrase search, * as a wildcard for stemmed searches and the connectors "NOT", "OR" and "NEARn"

Using Operators/Connectors

Operators/Connectors allow you to further refine your search by searching for an exact phrase, by excluding terms, searching for alternative wordings or for terms near each other and more.

To conduct a search using an operator/connector, first enter your search term in the relevant box then simply type in the operator/connector.

The screenshot shows the i-law.com Advanced Search page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'My Subscriptions', 'My Search Alerts', 'My Publication Alerts', 'My Searches', 'My Research Trails', and 'My Folders', along with a 'Log Out' button. The main header includes the i-law.com logo and a search bar with a dropdown menu set to 'All'. Below the header, there is a breadcrumb trail: 'You are here: Home » Advanced Search'. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column, titled 'Advanced Search', contains several input fields: 'Free Text:', 'Document Title:', 'Publication Title:', 'Format:', and 'Practice Area:'. Each field has a corresponding 'browse' button (e.g., 'browse titles', 'browse formats', 'browse areas'). There is also a 'Sort:' dropdown menu set to 'Relevance' and a 'Date range:' section with radio buttons for '30 Days', '90 Days', '1 Year', '5 Years', 'All' (selected), and 'Select range'. At the bottom of this column are 'Clear' and 'Search' buttons. The right column, titled 'Operators/Connectors', provides instructions for using various search operators: 'Phrase' (use quotations for exact phrases), 'Stemmed' (use * as a wildcard), 'NOT' (exclude documents), 'OR' (search for documents containing either term), and 'NEARn' (search for terms in proximity). At the bottom of the page, there is a link for 'Looking for Case Search?' and a footer with legal information.

Narrowing your search results

You can quickly refine your search using these filters:

Narrow by Practice Area:

If you have not chosen to narrow your search by Practice Area, you can do so by clicking on one of those listed. The number of results contained in each Practice Area is listed in brackets.

Narrow by Format:

Narrow by format presents a range of formats (e.g. Law Report, newsletter) with the number of results listed in brackets. Click on the format to view those results.

Narrow by Publication:

Narrow by publication allows you to narrow your search to show only those results found in a particular title, with the number of results in that title listed in brackets. Click on the publication to view those results.

HINT If you have previously chosen to narrow your search by any of the above means, you are also able to expand your search to see all available results by clicking [Remove].
